FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Phillip Van Hooser Earns Prestigious Top5 Speaker Designation in Leadership

Princeton, Kentucky – January 12, 2011 – Local leadership speaker Phillip Van Hooser has been awarded the prestigious “Top5 Speaker” designation in 2011 by Speakers Platform, one of the United States most prominent speakers bureaus. Out of hundreds of nominees, Phillip Van Hooser has risen to become one of the world’s most respected and compelling speakers in leadership.

Each year, Speakers Platform recognizes five speakers, within fifteen popular topic areas, based on: expertise, professionalism, innovation within the topic area, client testimonials & references, presentation skills, original contribution to the field and public votes cast at the Speaking.com Web site.

Since 1988, Phillip Van Hooser has spoken, written and consulted on leadership development issues worldwide. Van Hooser said, "I'm honored to be included in such elite company. My professional life is dedicated to equipping and inspiring individuals through the development of their leadership skills. When this happens, organizations grow and profit, individuals find value and satisfaction in their work and customers want to keep coming back – that's a distinct competitive advantage!"

Over 14,000 votes were cast from business leaders, educators, association members and others from around the world for the 2011 nominees.
